STEPS TO BECOMING A LANGUAGE-DESIGNATED CONSULAR FELLOW

STEP 1: CONFIRM YOUR ELIGIBILITY TO APPLY

To be eligible to apply for a language-designated Consular Fellow position, you must:

- Be a U.S. citizen of at least 20 years of age, and be 21 years or older to accept a position;
- Be able to obtain and maintain a Top Secret clearance;
- Be able to obtain authorization to work in country or countries of assignment and;
- Speak a designated foreign language at a required level of proficiency (Arabic, Chinese Mandarin, Portuguese, or Spanish).

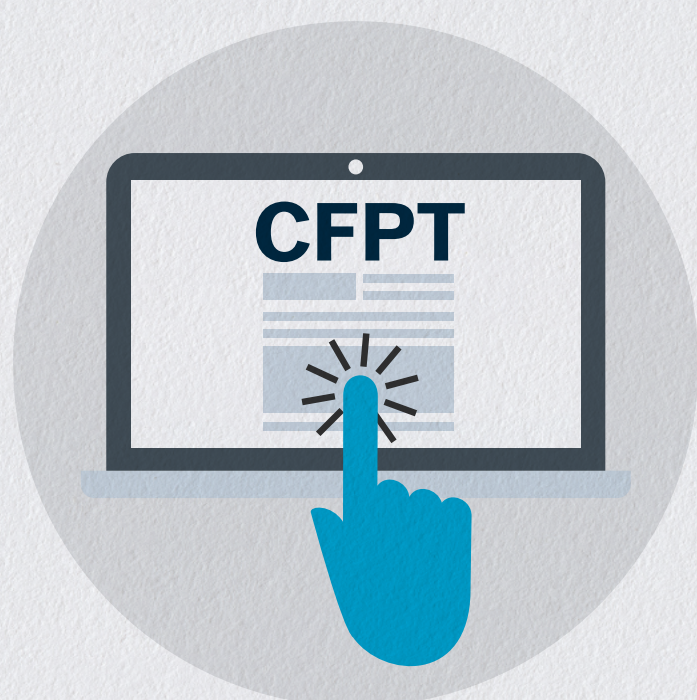

STEP 2: SUBMIT YOUR APPLICATION

Now that you have confirmed your eligibility to apply, the next step is to complete the online application. The application includes education and professional experience, as well as Personal Narrative questions. It also requires you to complete your resume online.

Complete the online application and register for the Consular Fellows Program Test (CFPT).

STEP 4: QUALIFICATIONS EVALUATION PANEL

If your CFPT score qualifies, your application will move forward to a Qualifications Evaluation Panel (QEP) for further review. The members of the Panel are experienced Consular Officers trained in resume evaluation skills. Your education, work experience, skills and abilities will be considered and scored in the QEP review process.

STEP 5: TAKE THE LANGUAGE TEST ?

The most competitive candidates from the QEP will be invited to take a language proficiency test with the Language Testing Institute (LTI) to confirm they have the required language skills. Both a speaking and a reading test are required.
