

BECOME A FOREIGN SERVICE MEDICAL PROVIDER

As a Foreign Service Medical Provider, I've found a career combination that enables me to continuously develop my professional skills and engage my personal interests. And working with the U.S. Department of State has transformed my desire to heal and explore into a force for global change.

I have the opportunity to channel my unique experience and diverse perspectives into tackling new healthcare challenges, finding innovative solutions, and promoting diplomacy abroad. Every day, I find new ways to become a better Medical Provider – and a more enriched person – than I was the day before.

Become a Foreign Service Medical Provider with the U.S. Department of State, and multiply your possibilities for the future.

- Graduate of an accredited Family Nurse Practitioner (FNP) or Physician Assistant (PA) program at the time of application with a minimum of a Master's degree in a health related field. Licence/certification in U.S. state or territory and minimum of five years clinical experience post NP or PA family practice certification. 75% of the NP or PA's time must be involved in direct primary care for at least four out of the last five years.
- Worldwide availability required
- U.S. citizenship required
- Between 21-59 yrs. old to be appointed
- $75,103 - $97,992 plus 10% retention incentive
- Paid housing and K-12 education for dependent children when serving overseas
- Training and career development
- Federal retirement benefits

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

-- Latifat

★ CAREERS REPRESENTING AMERICA ★

careers.state.gov

Visit careers.state.gov/work/opportunities/vacancy-announcements/mp to learn more and to apply.