INTERNSHIP AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT OPPORTUNITIES

U.S. Department of State Student Internship

Program: Paid internships offered during the fall, spring, and summer semesters, in Washington, D.C. or New York City. Interns receive GS-04 pay level, including transportation/housing expenses. Applicants must have completed at least 60 credit hours at an accredited university at the start of the internship, have at least a 3.2 GPA, and be enrolled in school the semester immediately following the internship. Graduate and undergraduate students are encouraged to apply.

U.S. Foreign Service Internship Program (USFSIP): Merit and needs-based opportunity available to undergraduate sophomore and junior students with a 3.2 GPA or higher. The program provides two paid internships in consecutive summers. The first will be in Washington, D.C. and the second will be at a U.S. Embassy or Consulate abroad. Interns receive pay at the GS-04 level and transportation/housing expenses.

Virtual Student Federal Service (VSFS): Part-time, virtual internships with flexible schedules. Interns can partner with Department of State diplomatic posts overseas and domestic offices. All VSFS interns are unpaid and volunteer ten hours a week from September to May. Learn more: doscareers.com/vsfs.

Pathways Internship Program: Offers paid employment for students while they attend school. Applicants must be at least 16 years old and enrolled or accepted as a student (full-time or part-time) in a qualifying high school, vocational school, undergraduate or graduate program, with a GPA of at least 2.0. Learn more at <https://doscareers.com/pip>.

Colin Powell Leadership Program Internship: The Colin Powell Leadership Program recruits highly motivated individuals from a variety of backgrounds who aspire to and possess the potential to become future Civil Service leaders in the Department. The program provides paid internships to students who are enrolled at accredited institutions of higher education. For more information, visit <https://doscareers.com/cplp>.

Rangel Summer Enrichment Program: Six-week summer program that prepares undergraduate students for careers in international affairs. Applicants with financial need and strong academic backgrounds with a commitment to service are strongly encouraged to apply (rangelprogram.org).
